DANIEL BIOGRAPHIES

Isabell Thacker, daughter of Charles E. and Maria Thacker, who was born October 20, 1903. They were married in the Salt Lake Temple January 9, 1924.

Preston graduated from the BYU High School at Provo. He, with his brother Lewis, farmed their father's homestead until they acquired a half interest each. For years they had a fine herd of Jersey cows.

Preston is a fine carpenter and has worked in civic improvements in Daniel. He was bishop from 1937-1948 and has always been a stalwart Church worker. He has been director and secretary in local irrigation companies.

Belle is a graduate of the Wasatch High School. Took a course in nursing under Josephine Eggar, through a school sponsored by the Relief Society. She has done much nursing at the Heber hospital and privately.

She has always been a very active Church worker, being president of the Primary from 1925-32, president of the Relief Society from 1933-35, and president of the YWMIA a number of years.

Belle and Preston have fine voices and sang at functions a great deal. Belle was a talented organist and pianist. Both were talented actors. Also Belle and two cousins put on musical stunts at wards all over the county and were invited to other wards outside of the county to perform. Belle died in 1962.

Their children are Richard, Lois, Charles Francis, Darwin, Kate, Janet and Shirley.
